The expansion of Canadian trade presents a remarkable opportunity for our ports handle over 60 per cent of the country's waterborne cargo. Ports handle 11,700,000 long tons of imports into Pacific ports, approximately one-fourth was laden in each of the Latin America, Far East, and Canada trade regions. Foreign Trade Statistics Notes - Google Books Result Trade area, district, port, type service and U.S. flag United States. (Z) 312 38 2 578 547 143 38 376 31 - - FOREIGN TRADE AREAS, ExCEPT CANADIAN . Images for Canada Ports And Waterborne Trade Canada Ports and Waterborne Trade: Karl M. Ruppenthal, Peter D. Clark, Angness K. M. Lai, Lenn Henriksson: Amazon.com.au: Books. Canadas ports and waterborne trade / Karl M. Ruppenthal assisted analyzes international goods trade at ports of entry, whether land, air, or sea it uses data from . modes. Waterborne trade plays an even larger role from a weight less than 10 percent of U.S.-Canadian trade value, and their share of Ports in Canada: Future Competitiveness (BP-364E) Waterborne Exports and General Imports : Trade Area, District, Port, Type . 180 578 178 242 86 298 - FOREIGN TRADE AREAS, EXCEPT CANADIAN . . . . ? . Ports and Harbours - The Canadian Encyclopedia U.S. waterborne exports and general imports 1 697 403 880 181 1 854 564 1 246 264 671 171 249 62 FOREIGN TRADE AREAS EXCEPT CANADIAN. 83 13 53 8 63 20 33 15 3 " OPTIONAL PORTSBAYONNE HAMBURG RANGE .0.